HELPING YOU MOVE AHEAD

The Ticket to Work Program provides individuals wishing to work with real choices in obtaining the services and resources needed to find and maintain employment, while also providing a safety net to help during this transition.

The Ticket to Work connects individuals with employment service providers (known as Employment Networks) to help individuals achieve work goals.

Are you ready to choose work?

- to increase your income
- explore your work options
- learn about job training and other no cost support services
- gain greater personal fulfillment

We can help you.

- decide what kind of work is right for you
- look at your options to earn more
- help you become self-sufficient
- and still keep your health coverage (Medicare/Medicaid)
- create an Individual Work Plan

There are many work incentives available, including:

- 9-month trial work period — earn any amount of wages while still receiving your benefits
- Expedited reinstatement of benefits for any month for up to 36 months after you've completed your trial work period in which you were not able to earn substantial wages due to your disability
- Protection from a continuing disability review (CDR) while you are using your Ticket

At CareerSource Brevard, we understand you are taking a big step by looking for someone to help you achieve your potential of employment, whether this is your first experience or you are ready to get back to work.

CareerSource Brevard takes the role of your employment very seriously. We think you should learn as much as you can about what we and other Employment Networks provide, so you can make an informed choice.
