

MILITARY FAMILY EMPLOYMENT ADVOCACY

CareerSource Brevard operates a broad spectrum of state and federally funded employment and training programs to assist workers in Brevard County.

The Military Family Employment Advocacy (MFEA) Program provides local resources and assistance to base community family members who are seeking employment or transition to a new career. The MFEA program supports Patrick Air Force Base, the local Florida National Guard and reserve units.

Helping
Military Families
in Brevard
Find Employment

We understand that military family members have unique challenges that demand flexibility when it comes to career development. Frequent relocation and employment changes are common. We work with military families to develop opportunities in occupations and industries that are growing or easily transferable to other geographic areas.
